Core Specialty Announces Van Spanos as Vice President of Newly Formed Excess & Surplus (E&S) Product Liability Group

Cincinnati, OH: January 19, 2021 /PRNewswire/ – Core Specialty Insurance Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries (“Core Specialty” or the “Company”) announced today its newly formed excess & surplus (E&S) primary Product Liability group led by Van Spanos. Spanos has joined as Vice President and will be responsible for managing all facets of this business, including direct oversight of the underwriting team dedicated to the E&S Product Liability market segment.

The Product Liability line will operate as a component of Core Specialty’s existing Excess Casualty Division.

Commenting on Van’s addition, Todd Dixon, President of the Excess Casualty division, said, "I am looking forward to working with Van as we build a market-leading specialty insurance company. Van is an accomplished insurance executive with a proven track record of building successful product liability insurance businesses from the ground up. He has spent his career in product liability and brings extensive experience in underwriting and distribution."

Jeff Consolino, President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "There is a clear market opportunity in commercial product liability. Van is an executive we know well and will lead a team that will continue to build on our strategic and dynamic vision for Core Specialty."

Spanos was most recently with Tokio Marine Insurance, where he served as the Vice President of National Product Liability. In this role, he was responsible for starting the Product Liability division. Prior to joining Tokio Marine, Spanos spent the previous sixteen years with Great American Insurance serving as a Divisional Vice President.
